M.S.W. Students From Karnataka University Visited The Ashram; Bhaiji Offered Guidance For Their Future.

Forty students from the Department of Social Work at Karnataka University (Dharwad) stayed overnight at Sewadham Ashram on April 7, with free food and accommodation arranged for them. The next day, they explored the campus, visited various projects, and spent time with residents. These future social workers closely observed the Ashram's service efforts and connected deeply with residents' stories. Many described the experience as life-changing. The Sewadham family welcomed them with warmth and simplicity. Their curiosity and dedication inspired the Ashram team.

Urja Pravah: Padma Shri Dr. Dharmapal Saini Honoured At Vikram University And Shares Inspirational Guidance

"Urja Parvah" at Vikram University, Ujjain, was a special event held under the leadership of Vice Chancellor Professor Arpan Bhardwaj, where Padma Shri Dr. Dharmapal Saini was honored. Sudhir Bhai also addressed the gathering. Dr. Saini, who has worked for decades in the remote tribal areas of Bastar, educating girls and spreading awareness, continues to guide society with his simplicity, compassion, and dedication. He has educated hundreds of tribal children in Naxal-affected regions and shown them the path to self-reliance and dignity. Dr. Saini shared inspiring thoughts with students, emphasizing service, simplicity, and social responsibility. He urged youth to use their knowledge and energy for nation-building and serving the marginalized. With the presence of Vikram University professors, students, and guests, the event became a source of inspiration and energy, filling the atmosphere with a renewed sense of purpose.

On Mahavir Jayanti, A Resolution For Jeevdaya And Human Service Was Taken At Sewadham

Mahavir Jayanti was celebrated with reverence at Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram. On this occasion, Sudhir Bhai and all service workers resolved to follow Lord Mahavir's teachings of non-violence, compassion, and Jeevdaya. The program began with prayers and meditation, followed by a discussion on his life and messages. Lord Mahavir's message of 'Live and Let Live' forms the foundation of Sewadham Ashram's service. For years, the Ashram has served not only abandoned humans but also hundreds of cows, animals, birds, and stray creatures in its Gaushala. This Jeevdaya spirit was taught by Lord Mahavir through his life. Sudhir Bhai said, "Just as Lord Mahavir made compassion his foundation, we must do the same." Children presented devotional songs, and special prasadi was offered. The atmosphere echoed with the message of non-violence, compassion, and coexistence.

10 April 2025

Special Feast Prasadi For 1,100 Ashram Residents On Mahavir Jayanti

On the auspicious occasion of Mahavir Jayanti, a special feast prasadi was arranged for all 1,100 residents of Sewadham Ashram. This event was dedicated to the principles of Lord Mahavir – compassion, equality, and service. Residents of all age groups, especially the differently-abled, senior citizens, women, children, and those suffering from severe ailments, joyfully partook in the prasadi served with love. The service workers lovingly served the meal, creating an atmosphere filled with spirituality and a deep sense of service. Through this event, the Ashram conveyed the message that the true celebration of any festival is meaningful when even the person standing at the last line is included with a sincere heart.

10 April 2025

Shri Ramesh Tongia from Indore celebrated his daughter-in-law's birthday in a unique and service-oriented way by distributing 1,000 special Jain cupcakes to all residents of the Ashram.

Important

- Around 20 new admission requests were declined at the Ashram as the individuals had family support.
- The sudden demise of Darshan's father was deeply mourned. On this sorrowful occasion, Bhai Ji expressed condolences, and Kanta Bhabhiji attended the Pagdi ritual.

The Compassionate Story Of Mayanath

Mayanath (56 years old), daughter of the late Vijaynath, was admitted to Sewadham Ashram on the recommendation of the Collector of Indore. Sadly, her family abandoned her. On April 6, 2025, when her health worsened, the Ashram informed her mother and uncle, but no one came. Only after threatening a police complaint did her mother arrive on April 8. On April 9, some relatives visited, intending to take her mother back, but she stayed due to Mayanath's condition. On April 11, Mayanath passed away in front of her mother. When the family was informed, they responded, "Burn her." Even after death, the family turned their backs. Bhai Ji had wished for the family to perform the last rites, so the Ashram waited, but when no one came, the Sewadham family conducted the rites with respect. Mayanath came alone, but Sewadham sent her off with dignity. This is the soul of the Ashram—where every soul receives honor, even in their final moments.
