

AnkitGram

SEWADHAM ASHRAM

EST. 1989

Weekly Highlights

|| Manav Sewa, Madhv Sewa ||

Page #1

15 - 21 April, 2025

For 36 years, Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram has been consistently dedicated to serving humanity. We aim to keep you informed about our weekly major activities. Please help us make our service more effective by offering your suggestions and guidance.

15 April 2025

Under the "Beggar-Free Campaign," on the orders of Indore District Collector Mr. Ashish Singh, 13 beggars were sent to Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram in Ujjain. They arrived in extremely poor condition. After bathing and care, improvements have been seen. With continuous care at the Ashram, their addictions are gradually being overcome, and positive changes are occurring in their lives.

16 April 2025

Once again, the Ashram set an example of humanity. A mother struggling with her mentally ill daughter and son found no shelter elsewhere; Sewadham Ashram extended a hand of compassion and provided all three of them respectful shelter, successfully rehabilitating them on April 21.

16 April 2025

Senior Social worker from Indore, Mr. Paras Kataria, donated his barren agricultural land to Sewadham Ashram for farming purposes. The Ashram's daughters harvested chickpeas from this land and brought them to the Ashram.

17 April 2025

Ujjain's newly appointed Collector Mr. Roshan Kumar Singh (IAS), Ujjain Superintendent of Police Mr. Pradeep Sharma (IPS), District Panchayat CEO Jayati Singh (IAS), SDM, and other officials inspected the Panchkosi pilgrimage route and visited the Bilkeshwar Mahadev rest site in Ambodia. Ashram founder Sudhir Bhai welcomed them with a saffron scarf and floral bouquet.

17 April 2025

16 coolers and 165 water campers have been sent to all wards.

16 Coolers and 165 Drinking Water Campers were arranged for the intellectually and mentally challenged residents across all wards of the Ashram.

17 April 2025

An Ashram daughter, along with her son and husband (son-in-law), visited Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram to seek blessings from Nanaji (Sudhir Bhai).

17 April 2025

Mr. Gautam Dhakad,
Director of "Jain Roots" and "18th Century Food,"
Indore, visited
Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram.

AnkitGram

SEWADHAM ASHRAM

EST. 1989

Weekly Highlights

|| Manav Sewa, Madhv Sewa ||

Page #2

15 - 21 April, 2025

For 36 years, Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram has been consistently dedicated to serving humanity. We aim to keep you informed about our weekly major activities. Please help us make our service more effective by offering your suggestions and guidance.

18 April 2025

Sharad Chandra from Manawar, District Dhar, abandoned by his family and suffering from kidney, liver, and eye problems, voluntarily came to reside at Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram.

18 April 2025

Former Sarpanch Mr. Govardhan Singh Dodia's family event the Wedding of Rajendra Singh and Shivani Kunwar in Ambodia was attended by Sudhir Bhai Goyal, who offered his blessings. Former Union Minister Dr. Satyanarayan Jatia and MLA Mr. Satish Malviya were also present.

19 April 2025

Saifuddin Bhai, who was in a critical condition, reached the Ashram after receiving treatment at Charak Hospital, Ujjain, and MV Hospital, Indore.

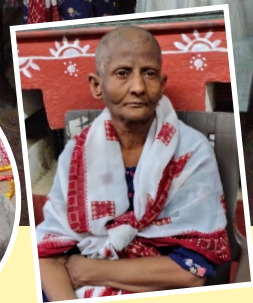

19 April 2025

Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram's commendable support in the Indore Beggar-Free Campaign continued. On the recommendation of Collector Mr. Ashish Singh, 8 more Beggars were rehabilitated towards addiction-free and better lives.

19 April 2025

Hema Meghwal (58), a mentally ill person from Rajasthan for 25 years, through the help of social worker Pankaj Kataria (Ratlam), reached Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram along with her sister-in-law and nephew in hellish conditions, where she is getting a new life.

Balram Ji Patel (from Kantarakhedhi) donated a Trolley of fodder to the Ashram's Cowshed (Gaushala).

AnkitGram

SEWADHAM ASHRAM

EST. 1989

Weekly Highlights

॥ Manav Sewa, Madhv Sewa ॥

Page #3

15 - 21 April, 2025

For 36 years, Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram has been consistently dedicated to serving humanity. We aim to keep you informed about our weekly major activities. Please help us make our service more effective by offering your suggestions and guidance.

19 April 2025

At the Ashram, Dr. A.K. Dwivedi, Member of the Scientific Advisory Board of the Central Council for Homeopathic Research, Ministry of AYUSH, Government of India, and Executive Council Member of Devi Ahilya University, Indore, along with Ashram founder Sudhir Bhai, reviewed the Ashram's humanitarian activities and interacted with children, youth, and elderly residents across various projects.

19 April 2025

Dr. S.K. Chaurasia from Pt. Khushilal Sharma Government Ayurveda College and Dr. Yogesh Bane from Ujjain Presented a memento to Bhaiji (Sudhir Bhai).

On April 20, the Wedding Ceremony of Ayushi (Daughter of Shri Anand Javeri) and Ankur took place in Ujjain. Shri Anand Javeri is the son of the late Shri Rajkumarji Javeri, who was the Founder Member and first Vice President of the Ujjaini Senior Citizens Organization. Best wishes were extended for a happy married life.

Sudhir Bhai Ji

Dressing the Wounds of a seriously ill patient who had come to the Ashram on the recommendation of Indore Collector...

20 April 2025

Industrialist Shri Sudhir Ramnarayan Agrawal from Indore visited Ankitgram Sewadhama Ashram with his wife.

Brief information on the major events between April 1 and April 14

The Ashram's chief patron, Mahamandaleswar Swami Prakhari Maharaj, along with Mumbai industrialist Shri Sanjeev Saran, Mrs. Deepa Mishra (President of the State Bank of India Ladies Club), Padma Shri awardee Dharampal Saini, Mahamandaleswar Swami Mahesh Yogi, and Raghavan Rajkumar, visited Ankitgram Sewadham Ashram.

21 April 2025

Deepika (from Indore) was successfully rehabilitated into her family along with her uncle and sister-in-law.

Lal Singh, a 74-year-old from Mathura who had become disillusioned with life and was wandering aimlessly, found respectful shelter at Ankitgram Sewadhama Ashram. He is now receiving appropriate treatment at Anand Karunalya.

21 April 2025

On April 21, senior naturopaths Dr. Ramesh Vaja from Himatnagar, Gujarat, and Dr. Sandeep Jain from Rajasthan arrived at the Ashram for a 9-day camp.

Scan the QR code to make a contribution. You can also contribute directly to our bank account (YES BANK) if you wish:

Account Name: SEWADHAM ASHRAM
Account number: 038194600000563